

General Impact Team Dress Code Guidelines

Camp Dress Code:

T-shirts and tank tops permitted. NO Spaghetti strap tops, halter-tops, tube tops, etc. Hemlines and necklines should be modest. NO low cut tops (avoid visual cleavage) Guys' tank tops must have small arm holes & not be cut out along the body. Let your skin breathe! NO tight clothes

No bare midriffs - shirts should be long enough that no skin is visible. Guys, no shirts with the sides cut out.

No sagging! Make sure your pants are not hanging low. (avoid revealing your undergarments please)

Girls, shirts that are transparent must be worn with an undershirt that meets dress code standards.

Shorts are good - but NO SHORT SHORTS OR SKIRTS. (Shorts no less than a 4" inseam; dresses & skirts should be no more than 4" from the top of the knee) Team members with clothes that are too short will be required to wear pants the rest of the day.

Cover up! Girl Swimsuit rules: No bikinis. If you have a one piece swimsuit that is low-cut and is revealing cleavage, wear a dark t-shirt. Tankinis are ok, but observe the No bare midriffs rule & wear a dark t-shirt if necessary. Guys, must wear swim trunks. No wearing regular clothes w/o swimsuits/trunks in the water.

Failure to adhere to dress code will result in campers having to change. Repeated issues could result in being sent home.

Impact Weekend Dress Code:

Our goal in our dress is to be modest and to be uniform. We want the focus to be on worshipping God. We do not want our dress or appearance to be, in any way, a distraction from our main purpose, which is drawing others into worship and praising God for His goodness.
